To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing in regard to Advanced Business Systems of Watertown, New York.

Immaculate Heart Central Junior/Senior High School has been doing business with Advanced Business Systems for over twelve years. During this time, I have found them to be reliable, honest and responsive to our needs. They stand behind their equipment and they respond to service calls promptly.

I especially want to mention Mr. Chris Angello, who is an exceptional salesman who truly cares about his clients. Chris ensures that we receive the right equipment at a fair price and that our service needs are met.

We also contract with Advanced Business Systems for computer maintenance and depend on the expertise of Jerry Loya who is always there when we need him. He is competent, understanding and a pleasure to work with.

In today's world where making money usually comes first, this company and its employees are truly exceptional. I recommend them to you without qualification!

Sincerely yours,
